UNSW Diploma Programs

Student Starter Guide
Your guide to getting set up
Welcome to the UNSW family

Congratulations on enrolling in your UNSW Diploma Program.
I am delighted to welcome you into the UNSW family as you take your first steps towards a UNSW degree and your future career.

As a Diploma student, you are embarking on the equivalent of your first year of university, which will be demanding and fast paced. You will be part of a supportive learning environment to ensure you graduate with the academic and English language skills you need to thrive. You can also look forward to being part of the vibrant UNSW Global community of over 6,000 international students, from over 40 countries, who commence their studies with us each year. At UNSW you will have access to the libraries, facilities and clubs of a top 50, world-ranked university, and every step of the way, you will also benefit from the expertise of our dedicated academic teachers and support staff.

It all starts with this guide, which is designed to prepare for your orientation and ensure you are set up for success. But if you have any questions, our Student Support team at UNSW Global are all ready to assist you on your journey to UNSW Sydney – so please email us at enquiries@unswglobal.unsw.edu.au with your questions and one of our friendly team will assist you on your journey.

On behalf of all UNSW Global staff, welcome to the UNSW family and best wishes as you commence your Diploma Program at UNSW.

David West
Chief Academic Officer
UNSW Global
Steps to getting started

Complete your IT Starter

The IT Starter will walk you through how to activate your G-ID and Z-ID and access your student email address.

Click here to complete your IT Starter.

Locate your G-ID and Z-ID

Your G-ID is your UNSW Global Student ID. You can find your G-ID in the subject of your email from Admissions, that contains your Confirmation of Enrolment letter (CoE).

Your Z-ID is your UNSW Student ID, you will use this to login to your online learning platform (Moodle) and MyUNSW. You would have received your Z-ID when you accepted your offer online.

If you are unsure of your G-ID or Z-ID, contact our Student Services team: enquiries@unswglobal.unsw.edu.au

Check your setup

- Check that you have an appropriate device to complete your program. Read the Personal Electronic Device guidelines.
- Check that you have a stable internet connection. Read the Internet Connection guide.

How to connect from China

If you are living in mainland China, you can access the China Student Access Network (CSAN). This is a virtual highway that offers a more reliable, secure and consistent internet connection. Read the CSAN guide to learn how to access this.

Register your study location

We are delighted that you have accepted your offer to study with us. Our live teaching takes place from 10am – 6pm, Sydney time.

To ensure that you have a better student experience whilst studying at UNSW Global, register your study location now.
